

Tshombe to Recommend Africa Peace

By PETER GROSE

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — President Moise Tshombe agreed today to end the secession of his wealthy Katanga province but said that his supporters in Elisabethville must approve before the agreement is carried out. Tshombe and Premier Cyrille Adoula of the central Congo concluded the pact to restore unity in the Congo after more than 15 hours of negotiations at the U.N. military base at Kitona. They promptly flew off to their respective capitals of Elisabethville and Leopoldville.

Tshombe signed an eight-point declaration which was presented formally to the United Nations. Its text, announced by the central Congo government, was brief and in skeleton form. It said: "The president of the province of Katanga."

"1. Accepts the application of the fundamental law of May 19, 1960, (the Congo's provisional constitution under which Katanga is a province and not an independent or autonomous state)."

"2. Recognizes the indivisible unity of the Republic of the Congo."

"3. Recognizes President (Joseph) Kasavubu as chief of state."

"4. Recognizes the authority of the central government over all parts of the republic."

"5. Agrees to the participation of representatives of the province of Katanga in a government commission to prepare a new constitution."

"6. Agrees to take all measures to permit senators and deputies of Katanga Province to exercise the national functions (that is, participate in the national parliament)."

"7. Agrees that the gendarmerie of Katanga shall be placed under the authority of the president of the republic."

"8. Agrees to see that the resolutions of the (U.N.) Security Council and General Assembly are respected and to facilitate their execution."

"(Signed) Tshombe."

Tshombe before leaving Kitona told newsmen the declaration would have to be ratified by his cabinet and the Katanga Assembly. But a U.N. spokesman asserted: "As far as we are concerned it is signed, sealed and delivered. There is no question of ratification."

Some observers in Leopoldville adopted a wait and see attitude. They recalled that Tshombe made a similar unity agreement in Leopoldville last June while being held prisoner by the central government and repudiated it as soon as he returned to Elisabethville.

At this time, however, U.N. troops are in control of his capital after a two-week war.

It was not immediately learned what provision if any was made for enforcement of the pact.

Arriving at Ndola, Northern Rhodesia, on route home, Tshombe indicated he was not satisfied with the outcome of his talks with Adoula at the heavily guarded U.N. base at the mouth of the Congo River.

U.N. Acting Secretary-General U Thant had ordered U.N. troops in Katanga to observe a cease-fire while the talks were under way.

UN Assembly Hits Russia and China

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly recessed its 16th session early today for Christmas after denouncing Soviet domination over Hungary and Red Chinese oppression in Tibet.

The two resolutions were passed over bitter opposition from the Soviet bloc, which accused the United States of dredging up cold war issues that have remained dormant since the last time the U.N. acted on them in 1959.

The 104-nation forum approved 49-17 with 32 abstentions a resolution deploring "the continued disregard" by the Soviet Union and the Hungarian regime of assembly resolutions concerning the situation in Hungary.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson warned the Soviet Union and Hungary that the U.N. had not forgotten the 1956 revolt stamped out by Soviet armor.

Earlier, the assembly voted 55-11 with 30 abstentions for a resolution expressing grave concern over violations of human rights in Tibet, now under Chinese domination. Only the Soviet bloc and Cuba voted no.

The session, which opened in September under the shadow of Dag Hammarskjold's death on a mission to Katanga, recessed until Jan. 15 a few hours before word reached New York that Katanga President Moise Tshombe had agreed to end his province's secession from the central Congo government.

Despite the Congo crisis, the session included a number of key decisions triggered by agreement between the Soviet Union and the United States.

Behind-scenes talks between Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian E. Zorin brought accord on such knotty issues as arrangements for negotiations on disarmament and outer space and the choosing of a successor for Hammarskjold.

A signal triumph for the United States was the assembly's sharp rejection of Red China's bid for U.N. seat—an issue the United States decided to meet head-on this year after keeping it shelved for 10 years.

American circles also hailed assembly approval of President Kennedy's proposal that the next 10 years be declared a "U.N. decade of development" with special effort to spur the economies of underdeveloped countries.

The most important new developments was the assembly's approval, over Soviet opposition, of a $200-million, 25-year bond issue to save the world body from bankruptcy.

In the final day the assembly also:

Adopted an American-backed measure to continue a special U.N. commission trying to unify Korea. The vote was 60-11 with 27 abstentions.

Shelved until next fall an Indian proposal to designate 1963 as "The United Nations year of International Cooperation" and set up a 12-nation committee to devise ways to give the designation meaning.

Rockefeller Concedes His Son Is Lost

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller announced today with deep regret "that a search for his youngest son, Michael, 23, who was lost off the coast of New Guinea had been ended and no trace of him has been found."

Rockefeller said he had been notified by the government of New Guinea that "the search has been brought to an end."

Rockefeller made the announcement at a news conference in his office.

Michael Rockefeller last was seen Nov. 19, when he plunged into waters off the coast of New Guinea from a disabled boat. He was on an anthropological expedition in search of primitive art in a remote, uncivilized section of New Guinea.

The governor flew to New Guinea and joined the search by plane and boat.

2 Held for Circus Fire in Brazil

NITEROI, Brazil (AP) — Two men were held today in connection with the circus fire that took some 300 lives last Sunday but a high police official cast doubt on a statement by one of them that he had set the fire.

"I think he is just trying to gain notoriety by making the confession," the police official added.

Police Chief Gouveia de Abreu said Wednesday night that Alves, a Negro, confessed starting the fire to get revenge because the owner of the circus had refused to give him a job. He implicated another man who also was arrested but who denied having anything to do with setting the fire.

The fire spread rapidly through a big nylon tent trapping hundreds of spectators. Many of the dead were children.

After his arrest, Alves was taken from the Niteroi jail to a military barracks when about 50 angry people gathered in front of the jail.

No charges have been filed against Alves.

10,000 Reds in U. S. Face Prosecution

WASHINGTON (AP) — Justice Department officials apparently had a case today against each member of the U.S. Communist party—about 10,000 persons by FBI estimate.

By the time the zero hour was reached at midnight Wednesday, not one of them had come forward to register as an agent of a foreign power, the Soviet Union, as required by the Internal Security Act, the department reported.

But a spokesman indicated the Justice Department planned to study the situation carefully before acting against the individual party members.

There still was the possibility that some members may have mailed in registration forms before the deadline. But department officials, noting repeated declarations by party officers that they would not comply with the act, said they expected no such filing.

If convicted, each member could be fined $10,000 and sentenced to five years in prison for each day of violation.

U. S. 'Copters to Reply to Gunfire

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. helicopter crews flying into South Viet Nam's guerrilla-infested battle lines will shoot back if Communists fire on them, say Pentagon sources.

The United States has sent 40 helicopters and 400 men to fly them to South Viet Nam. They will be used, the sources said, to haul supplies and Vietnamese troops into isolated areas where the soldiers can battle Communist Viet Cong rebels.

Fighting in Cuba Is Told by Refugee

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A military leader of the Cuban revolution, now in exile, said bloody fighting has involved rebel guerrillas and 25,000 Fidel Castro troops in central Cuba's mountains.

No confirmation of major conflict came from major Cuban exile groups or U.S. officials in this country, or from Havana.

The Cuban radio ridiculed the statement made by Maj. Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo.

Gutierrez Menoyo called a news conference Wednesday and said that fierce combat was in progress in the Escambray Mountains between rebel units and Castro militia trying to stamp out their increased activities.

"Just today," Gutierrez Menoyo said, "we received word of bitter fighting that has left many militiamen dead at Obispo near Sancti Spiritus."

Cuban exile leaders in Washington said they got no reports of major clashes between Castro and insurgent groups. But they said there have been signs of some minor contacts between the guerrillas and Castro troops trying to hunt them down.

U.S. officials said they had no word of unusual activity in Cuba.

In Havana, AP correspondent George Arfied said there has been no indication of major fighting on the island. Arfied said there are constant rumors of skirmishes but such reports seldom are confirmed.

Case of Goa Shakes UN to Foundations

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The case of Goa has brought home a sobering fact to many U.N. diplomats: the United Nations of today is not the organization they knew 10 or even 5 years ago. The change prompts some of the alarms that are being sounded about its future.

The flood of Asian and African countries into membership has introduced new concepts, new codes of conduct. Some Western diplomats express concern that the group's growing influence may so transform the U.N. that the West can no longer accept it.

In the Goa case, for example, the Soviet Union was not alone in opposing a cease-fire. The Security Council's three African-Asian members—Ceylon, Liberia and the United Arab Republic—joined the Soviets.

Going even further, those three demanded that the council reject Portugal's complaint and call on Portugal in effect to turn over the areas to India voluntarily.

This was a factor in Adlai E. Stevenson's pessimistic statement Tuesday. He said the Soviet veto was consistent "but I find the attitude of some other members of the council profoundly disturbing."

"We have witnessed tonight," he went on, "an effort to rewrite the charter, to sanction the use of force in international relations when it suits one's own purposes."

"This approach can lead only to chaos and to the disintegration of the United Nations."

The combination of Asian-African and Communist support for India convinced the Western powers that it would be futile to follow the usual practice of going before the General Assembly in the face of a veto. They did not relish the prospect of being slapped down by a whopping vote.

One of the things that has shocked Western diplomats is the frankness of many Asian and African delegates in declaring that the use of force is permissible if used to free a dependent territory.

Stevenson and other Western diplomats seem fearful that the Asian-African attitude may lead to extreme measures which could discredit the United Nations or force the withdrawal of the Western powers who were its chief founders and still furnish its chief financial support.

Escapes From Monticello Taken

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP) — Drew County Sheriff Jack Towler was notified Wednesday that two of three men who escaped from county jail here Dec. 17 had been captured in New Mexico.

The sheriff said the pair, David Dye, 25, and Richard Kelly, 17, were apprehended at Las Cruces, N.M., and waived extradition to Arkansas.

Dye and Kelly were quoted as saying they parted company with the third prisoner, Joe Curtis, a 35-year-old Negro, shortly after fleeing the jail.

Curtis remains at large.

Newspaper Boy Donates His Profit

KINGSFORD, Tenn. (AP)—The newsboy kept walking past the Salvation Army Christmas collection kettle. Each trip he dropped in 2 cents.

An Exchange Club member, helping man the kettle station, finally figured it out. The 9-year-old lad was donating his two cents profit from each paper sale.

Just to be sure, a clubman went up and purchased a paper and gave the boy a nickel tip. A few minutes later the lad was back at the kettle. This time he dropped in seven cents.

"Do you know anybody the Salvation Army has helped?" a club member asked the newsboy, three weeks ago.

"Yes, sir. We got a Christmas basket last year," the boy replied.

Wednesday, the Exchange Club had the newsboy as its special guest at a luncheon. He left with a new bicycle, wearing a new jacket and with a savings account book showing more than $60 on deposit for his future education.

He was introduced only as Gary. The club said it wanted to publicize the deed, rather than the boy and his family.

Salvation Army records showed that Gary is one of five children, aged 2 to 13. The parents have worked irregularly this year, with the top income for one month about $57.

Gary's third-grade teacher said he almost never misses a day of school and often shares what he has with some youngster less fortunate than he.

Third Model of X-15 Is Given Tests

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A third X-15 rocket plane has taken to the air and made the first test of new controls for space flight.

Pilot Neil A. Armstrong of the U.S. space agency flew the ship at 2,454 miles per hour and to an altitude of 80,000 feet in an 11-minute maiden flight Wednesday.

There was no attempt to go higher or faster. The two other X-15s hold the world records for both speed and altitude.

The flight tested a computer-like device that automatically operates jets in the nose and wings to correct deviations in space flight faster than a man can think. Heretofore the pilot has had to operate the control jets manually. They are needed because of the rare atmosphere at high altitudes. Armstrong expressed satisfaction with the performance.

JFK Visits His Father, Then British Chief

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

HAMMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — Leaving his stricken father's bedside, President Kennedy flew into Bermuda today for wide-ranging talks with Prime Minister Macmillan.

The President and the British leader scheduled a luncheon meeting at government house, 45 minutes after Kennedy's arrival at Bermuda's Kindley Air Force Base.

The central problems of West Berlin and an Allied approach to Moscow are expected to take up much of the two-day talks.

Kennedy visited his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, at St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach, Fla., for a half hour before taking off for Bermuda at 9:51 a.m. EST. He said his father's condition appeared to be "about the same."

The President returns to Palm Beach Friday evening, but will be kept informed about his father's condition during his rendezvous with Macmillan. If necessary, he could fly back to Florida in little more than two hours.

Besides reviewing the Berlin and German question, Kennedy and Macmillan are expected to pay considerable attention to the Congo question, nuclear weapons and the future of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. It is also likely they will take a long careful look at the role of the so-called neutral nations in the light of India's takeover of Goa and the threat of Indonesian action against the Dutch in New Guinea.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk arranged a luncheon with his British counterpart, Lord Home, while their bosses were going to their private luncheon.

Invited to the Rusk-Home luncheon on the British side, were Sir David Ornish-Gore, British ambassador to Washington; Sir Norman Brook, secretary to the British Cabinet; Sir William Penney, adviser on nuclear weapons; and Sir Evelyn Shuckburgh, deputy undersecretary of state for European affairs.

On the American side were McGee Bundy, the President's adviser on security affairs; Charles E. Bohlen, expert on Soviet affairs; David Bruce, ambassador to London; Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission and several others.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy left his ailing father's bedside today and flew out for talks in Bermuda with British Prime Minister Macmillan.

Just before going to the airport the President visited St. Mary's Hospital where Joseph P. Kennedy is a patient. The President spent a half-hour there and said

Reserve Body Neutral on Interest

NEW YORK (UPI)—Aside from its action allowing commercial banks to increase interest payments on savings as a means of attracting foreign funds, the Federal Reserve continues to follow a fairly neutral monetary policy, says Walter Mint of Shearson, Hamill & Co.

However, the analyst says, it appears doubtful that this situation can continue for very long. "With the U.S. economy strong and a moderate slowdown apparent in Western European industrial activity, the U.S. balance of trade is likely to deteriorate, putting additional pressure on the U.S. gold supply. Thus, it seems probable that the Federal Reserve will be forced to tighten credit before very long."

L. O. Hooper of W. E. Hutton & Co. says in talking to clients in recent weeks, he has been told "over and over again" that they are anxious to take profits in certain stocks, but that they want the profits to go into the 1962 tax year, not 1961. If these investors act the way they talk, says Hooper, "we would expect more profit-taking next week and during January. Such profit-taking would more logically impinge on the blue chips recently in high demand than on the cyclical issues."

James F. Hughes of Auchincloss, Parker & Redpath says a detailed analysis of stock market cycles over the past 75 years indicated that the cyclical trend of the market is likely to be "irregularly upward at least until the autumn of 1962, and quite possibly into the early months of 1963."

Check Passer Is Put on Probation

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Federal Judge Gordon E. Young placed Mrs. Patricia Shanks, 25, of St. Louis, on two years probation Tuesday after she pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court to a charge of passing forged checks in Alabama and Tennessee.

Mrs. Shanks previously had been placed on 10-years probation in Mississippi County for passing forged checks in Arkansas.

Willis V. Lewis, her attorney, told Young Mrs. Shanks had passed the checks unwillingly for Herman Jack Fehr, whom she believed to be her second husband.

Lewis said Mrs. Shanks met Fehr in St. Louis last year and came to Arkansas with him where "they went through some fraudulent ceremony he concocted and he said they were married."

The attorney told Young that Mrs. Shanks was forced into the forged check scheme after Fehr and a man named George Dewitt Clinton threatened her with bodily harm.

Fehr is now serving a seven-month sentence for his part while Clinton was sentenced to four years in prison last April 6 in Alabama.

She Pays Fine for Other Guy

LOS ANGELES (AP) - A parking citation with a $5 bill attached arrived at the municipal court traffic fines bureau Tuesday.

An accompanying note said: "I have found this ticket on the car-walk. Not knowing if the car-owner has ever seen it, I feel it would be nice if I made the remittance for him or her."

"This, in a small way, may make up for it. Merry Christmas to you all."

LET'S TALK ARKANSAS

Year of CHANGE!

For the first time in the history of Arkansas—the value of industry payrolls and profits tipped the scales over agriculture. During 1960 total manufacturing payrolls and profits accounted for 14.8% of the State's total personal income of 2.4 billions of dollars. Agriculture, a close second, registered 14.7% of the total.

The growth of manufacturing in Arkansas has been phenomenal during the last decade. Agriculture, too, has kept pace with the times with technological advances. The balance of manufacturing and agriculture in Arkansas is benefiting all Arkansans during this Year of Change.

Beer is a major industry in Arkansas aiding agriculture and manufacturing with its purchase of products and materials in the State. The beer industry is also a major taxpayer and employer. Beer truly belongs in the industrial and agricultural picture of Arkansas.

Tide Winds Up Practice for Holiday

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—Alabama's football players—mixing thoughts of Sugar Bowls and Christmas—headed home for a short holiday today.

Coach Paul Bryant, mindful of the season, called only a brief workout in sweat clothes this morning before sending his troops packing for home.

And he didn't seem greatly disturbed because the players didn't have their minds on football during Wednesday's two-hour drill.

"I imagine," he said, "if I was that age and thinking about going home for Christmas I wouldn't be thinking about Arkansas much either."

The team will reassemble at Biloxi, Miss., next Tuesday for final drills before meeting Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans on New Year's Day.

Bryant didn't exactly have the Christmas spirit in mind when he commented that his Crimson Tide may have a surprise or two for the Razorbacks.

"We'll have a few new 'knicks,' he told newsmen.

Coming from Bryant, that could mean almost anything—a minor move most fans wouldn't notice, something spectacular, or possibly something he'll come up with on the sidelines at the game.

Fans at the Tennessee game saw one of Bryant's "knicks." It was a short pass just across the line of scrimmage—a variation of the Utah pass which Bryant said his players dubbed the "whoopie" pass. It's a risky pass but if baffled Tennessee and Alabama went on to win a 34-13 victory.

That was the last time Alabama was scored on in an unbeaten and untied season.

Another School Drops Grid Game

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rising costs have forced another small college to quit playing football.

Pepperdine, after 16 years, announced Wednesday it is dropping the sport immediately. It is the second Southern California school in recent weeks to eliminate football, following the lead of the University of San Diego.

College officials said gate receipts this year produced only about $1,000—and $31,000 was spent on the program.

New Tulane Coach to Be Recruiting

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Tommy O'Boyle, Tulane's new football coach, sees recruiting as his first major job in trying to improve his alma mater's grid fortunes.

O'Boyle, 44, was named Wednesday to replace Andy Pliney, who resigned under fire earlier following the Green Wave's 2-8 record this season.

The new Tulane coach, who handled the line under Pliney, said: "My major objective right now is recruiting. We are working and we shall continue to work hard to sign some good boys and bring them here to play ball."

O'Boyle, signed to a five-year contract at an undisclosed salary, said his other main task now is to select a staff.

A star Tulane guard 20 years ago, O'Boyle was line coach at Kansas State, Duke and Miami (Fla.) before returning to Tulane last year. He also was head coach and athletic director at Southwest Missouri State University.

Oiler Coach Voted Man of the Year

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Wally Lemm of the Houston Oilers was voted coach-of-the-year in the American Football League today by an Associated Press committee of sportswriters and sportscasters in the eight league cities.

After Lemm took over at Houston, the Oilers won nine straight on their way to the Eastern Division title and a Dec. 24 title game with the San Diego Chargers, Western Division winners.

Houston put on a real aerial show with Lemm at the controls and George Blanda throwing to such prime targets as Charlie Hennigan, Billy Cannon and Bill Groman.

For a man who wasn't even in pro football when the 1961 season started, Lemm did quite a job. Disillusioned by his earlier experiences as a defensive coach under Lou Rymkus, Lemm quit last spring to go into the sporting goods business at Libertyville, Ill., with an old pal.

When the Oilers lost three, tied one and won only one of their first five games, they put in a hurry call to Libertyville. Lemm responded.

The former Carroll College (Wis.) halfback, started Jackie Lee in his first game against Dallas. The club was losing 7-0 going into the second period when Lemm decided to call on Blanda. He hasn't stopped calling for Blanda since that day.

Mike Holovak of Boston, who took over for Lou Saban in the middle of the season, also drew some support for coach-of-the-year honors. The Patriots finished last in the Eastern Division but finished their season by bombing San Diego by a shocking 41-0 score.

NAAU Chief Wants Peace With Schools

By HOWARD CRISWELL JR.

HIGH POINTS, N.C. (AP)—Louis F. Fisher says the major task facing him as the new president of the national Amateur Athletic Union is to iron out differences between his group and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

"We have a desire to get together to try to resolve our differences," said Fisher, 59-year-old dapper prosecuting attorney of the High Point City Court. "I hope they (the NCAA) have a similar desire."

"If we don't get together, everybody is going to get hurt, the athletes and the Olympic program."

Fisher, a veteran official of the North Carolina and national AAU, was elected president in Washington Dec. 3.

"In my acceptance speech in Washington," said Fisher, "one of my keynote points was that the differences between the NCAA, nation's ninth-ranking scorer, and the AAU should not be carried further. The two bodies should direct their efforts to training athletes for the 1964 Olympics. This constant bickering is not getting us anywhere and it is detrimental."

According to Fisher, there are two main reasons for the current breach between the two groups. Both reasons stem from a 5-0 domination of amateur basketball policy in the U.S.

Fisher said the AAU is attempting to settle the problem and has offered to form a new group called the Basketball Council of the U.S. composed of all major basketball groups.

This body then would elect the single representative to the international federation.

Hornung Is Voted Best of League

FT. RILEY, Kan. (AP)—"This comes as a great surprise to me because the last couple of months I've been in the Army and have missed two games."

That's what Paul Hornung said about his selection today as the Most Valuable Player in the National Football League by an Associated Press panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

"This makes me feel very, very good," the Green Bay Packers halfback said. "I realize that playing on the team that is the Western Division champion means a lot."

There are two or three others on the club that could have won the same honor.

The former Notre Dame star made 146 points and won the NFL scoring title for the third year in a row. He missed games with Los Angeles Nov. 19 and Dec. 17.

Hornung will get a six-day leave beginning Dec. 27—the regular Christmas-New Year's holiday time off the men at Ft. Riley receive. His leave includes Dec. 31, the day the Packers and the New York Giants, Eastern Division winners meet for the NFL championship.

Villanova Is Big Surprise of East

By BOB GREEN Associated Press Sports Writer

Jack Kraft wasn't supposed to have much to work with this season when he started his first year as head basketball coach at Villanova.

Only one starter, hot-shooting Hubie White, returned from last year's team that had a so-so 11-13 record. For the rest, he had to rely on reserves, sophomores and speed.

Lacking height and experience, the Wildcats weren't expected to do too much in the pre-season forecasts.

Today, they rank as one of the biggest surprises in the East, sporting an 8-0 record built on hustle and determination. They've been pressed only once—in Wednesday night's 64-59 victory over St. Francis (Pa.) in the first half of a doubleheader at Philadelphia—and are making a determined bid for a national ranking.

In the nightcap, LaSalle surprised Penn 69-57, knocking the Quakers from the rapidly dwindling ranks of the unbeaten. Penn, 4-0 this season and sporting one of the longest major college unbeaten strings in the nation—12—just didn't have it.

Two of the other unbeaten in action Wednesday night came through on schedule, though Seton Hall had a major scare before surviving. The Hall, playing at home, established a 16-point lead at halftime, but barely managed an 81-79 verdict over Rider College.

Sophomore Nick Werkman, struck for a layup that gave Seton Hall a 78-77 lead "that stood up. He finished with 29 points. Dayton won its sixth straight without major difficulty, 62-45 over Regis at Dayton.

Providence finished its brief, unhappy foray into the midwest with a 67-53 drubbing at the hands of Xavier. The third-ranked Friars started their trip with a 5-0 record, and left Cincinnati today with a 5-2 mark.

In some of Wednesday's night's major games, UCLA lost to Creighton 74-72 at Omaha; Minnesota turned back 10th-ranked Arizona State 70-68 on the Gophers' home court; home-standing Tennessee lost its fourth straight, 61 to Missouri; Michigan stood off touring South Carolina 70-68 and

Ex-Celt Has L. A. Jets in High Gear

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Bill Sharman, the former Boston Celtic who jumped back home for a coaching opportunity, has the Los Angeles Jets rolling in the new American Basketball League.

Sharman's Jets made it six in a row Wednesday night, whipping the Washington Tapers 93-89 at Washington and drawing to within 2½ games of the idle Kansas City Steers, the ABL's Western Division leaders.

In a matter of two weeks, the Jets have made up three full games on Kansas City with Dan Swartz and big Bill Spivey in leading roles.

In other games, Chicago scored four points in the last 12 seconds to defeat Cleveland 98-94 at Chicago Stadium; and in San Francisco, the Saints beat the Hawaii Chiefs 103-95.

Having Some Trouble Shopping?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Having trouble winding up your Christmas shopping?

Well, why not give a gift that costs little to buy, but—if well-chosen—links both the giver and the receiver with a loyalty of the moment that lasts a lifetime?

What else but a book?

The main thing is to pick the right book for the right person.

As a potential guide, we present—in fun—a suggested list of gift books for famous figures who made news in 1961:

"God Had a Dog"—Lassie.

"The Conduct of War"—Prime Minister Nehru.

"Chairman of the Bored"—David Susskind.

"My Life in Court"—James R. Hoffa.

"I Should Have Kissed Her More"—Arthur Miller.

"The Age of Reason Begins"—Jayne Mansfield.

"The Empty Canvas"—Grandma Moses, in memoriam at 101.

"But Not in Shame"—The Irish troops in the Congo.

Easy-To-Do Fruit Cake

It's truly as simple as one-two-three putting together "Quick Light Fruit Cake" for the Christmas season.

First, prepare the contents of a package of pound cake mix. Then toss together crunchy slivered almonds, whole candied cherries, sliced fresh dates, bits of candied pineapple, grated lemon rind and flour. Finally, fold the mixture into the batter—and let the oven do the rest!

Crisp almonds provide excellent texture and subtle flavor in this made-in-a-jiffy cake, which may be further enhanced by a lemon-flavored powdered sugar glaze bedecked with blanched whole almonds.

Quick Light Fruit Cake

1 package (17 oz.) pound cake mix
 1 cup sliced fresh California dates
 1 cup blanched slivered almonds
 2 slices candied pineapple, cut up
 3/4 cup whole candied cherries
 3/4 cup sifted all-purpose flour
 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Prepare pound cake mix according to package directions. Toss together remaining ingredients and fold into batter. Turn into a greased and floured 9-inch fluted tube pan or kugelhoff pan. Bake in 325-degree (moderately slow) oven 1 hour and 15 minutes. Let cool in pan 10 minutes, then turn out onto wire rack to cool. Cake may be used at once, or wrap in cheesecloth soaked in brandy and store in tightly closed tin. Makes 1 large fruit cake.

Critic Hits Red Skelton TV Show

By FRE DANZIG
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—A glaring incongruity supplied the only fragment of entertainment that I could find in Tuesday night's "Red Skelton Show."

"Freddie and the Yuletide Doll," as the CBS-TV half-hour was called, was Red's all-pantomime Christmas show. Now, when Skelton says all-pantomime, we know he really means some-pantomime. We expect him to be overzealous in the use of sound effects. And we also are accus-

The incongruity was this: Someone decided that Tuesday night's program should serve to introduce a stereophonic equipment gimmick called "surrounding sound." The idea of surrounding a pantomime program with stereophonic sound systems strikes me as a bit on the kooky side. May as well introduce picture windows to fall-out shelters.

The skit found Skelton portraying the Christmas-lonely, sorrowful bum. He's in a snow-covered park and he finds a Raggedy Ann doll. He wishes the doll into being and presto! his wish comes true. The doll becomes Cara Williams. The "Pete and Gladys" series. They hit it off real well. Bum gets doll-girl. Bum skates with doll girl. Bum loses doll-girl. Bum walks off into the night—lonely and sorrowful once more.

This should have been a poignant interlude despite the stale-ness of the story. But the design-lacked stendiness and cohesion. Too often Skelton and Miss Williams had to react, not to dramatic instinct and inventiveness, but to the mushy lyrics of the songs in the background. They failed to develop and sustain a palpable mood.

And most unfortunate of all, Skelton again was unable to prevent himself from indulging in tasteless, illusion-shattering gestures.

Only the most routine of pantomime technique was required of either star. It seems to me that, with the exception of some brilliant characterizations performed in last season's all-pantomime program before U.N. delegates, Skelton's periodic dips into the art of pantomime are fundamentally thin, chaotic and uninspired. He is masterful, a delight to watch, in vignettes. But in the longer sketches, which must evolve a poignant mood, the talent tends to disintegrate.

3-Year Killing Term Is Reduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus reduced the three-year prison term of Phil Allen Tuesday to parole eligibility. Allen was convicted of a Lincoln County manslaughter charge last Feb. 13. The state Pardon and Parole Board recommended the commutation.

Nixon Faced With Naming Alternative

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic senators challenged Richard M. Nixon today to offer an alternative to President Kennedy's "hard choice" of backing U.N. action in Katanga.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, said he accepts as "responsible opposition" criticisms made by Nixon, the 1960 GOP presidential nominee, of administration policies in the Congo.

"But what does Mr. Nixon offer as an alternative?" Humphrey asked. "If Katanga secedes from the Congo, it is the beginning of the end. The rest of that unhappy country will become then a beach-head for communism. President Kennedy has made the hard choice—either the U.N. or the communists will prevail in the Congo."

Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama used similar words in a separate interview to describe the President's policies. He said it was all very well for Nixon to characterize as "an incredible mess" the administration's decision to back U.N. efforts to force unification of the Congo.

"But what would Mr. Nixon have done?" Sparkman asked. Nixon said in a copyright article in the Los Angeles Times-Mirror that the United States had been put in the position of allying itself with the Soviet Union and against most of its North Atlantic Organization allies in the Congo. He said the central Congo government was "infiltrated by Communists and Communist sympathizers."

Replying to this, Humphrey said that Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula can be regarded as just as anti-Communist as Katanga's President Moise Tshombe. He said if Tshombe and Adoula can reach an agreement he is confident they can repress Communist skulchings, which must evolve a influence in any resulting government.

Search Begun for 2 Jail Escapees

PIGGOTT, Ark. (AP)—One of the two men who sawed through the bars of their cell Tuesday to escape from the Clay County jail at Piggott surrendered early today.

Authorities said 21-year-old Alton Moss of Nimmons (Clay County) surrendered after spending the night in below-freezing temperatures. Moss was only a by producer Ray Stark for a young lady to dub the voice of Fanny Brice's famed characterization. Authorities said Woodrow Easter was thought to be in the area around Hector. The 28-year-old Easter was convicted of assault with intent to kill. The two escaped during visiting hours Tuesday after sawing through the bars of a peephole in their cell and unlocking the door.

JIGGOTT, Ark. (AP)—A search was started in northeast Arkansas Tuesday after two prisoners escaped from the Clay County jail here. The escapees were identified as Woodrow Easter, 28, convicted of assault with intent to kill; and Lon Moss, 21, sentenced for burglary. Sheriff Francis Underwood said it was not known how the escape was made.

New Things in World of Science

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Visions of using robot computers to help doctors diagnose diseases; a theory that chemicals suspect as cancer-causes may hitchhike rides on viruses; and a new and healthier paint for submarines are among latest examples of science at work.

Robot Medics

New research suggests that eventually electronic computers may help doctors diagnose heart disease and certain other ailments.

The robot medical aides might also be employed in "mass screening" of large population groups to help detect unsuspected ailments.

That's the word from a team of U.S. Public Health Service, Cornell, and industry researchers. They report preliminary but promising results in using a computer to help tell whether a given person has a normal or diseased heart.

It does so, they say, by digesting punched card data corresponding to electrical and other signals given out by the heart—and automatically comparing it with similar data stored in the machine's memory department.

Hitchhikers

Certain chemicals present in man's environment have long been strongly suspect as among causes of cancer—even though they are present only in trace amounts, says a group of Seton Hall Medical College researchers.

How then, could they possibly cause cancer? It might be, say the scientists, that common viruses—such as those that sometimes cause polio, colds and other ailments—might serve as carriers of such chemicals. They might take them right into susceptible body cells which viruses themselves can invade.

Submarine Paint

As any sailor can tell you, the Navy is always painting something—to protect ship hulls and machinery from corrosion. In submarines—especially in long-submerged nuclear subs—there's another reason for frequent painting and repainting: to prevent sailors from getting psychological problems that might arise from a monotonous environment.

With oil-based paints formerly used, the Navy found that such frequent changes of interior scenery led to a build-up of potentially unhealthy compounds released from the paints long after they had dried.

Now, the Naval Research Laboratory has come up with a new, semi-gloss "acrylic-latex" paint—with a rubbery base—which scientists say solves the problem.

DOLLS AMONG DOLLS—"I'll never be through in time for Christmas," says Mrs. Claus as she reflects on the job of dressing nearly 600 dolls in Dallas, Tex. The two children were helping prepare the dolls, donated by employees of a local insurance firm, before being turned over to the Salvation Army for distribution to parents of underprivileged children in time for Christmas giving.

For Christmas, a sparkling fragrance has been done up in both eau de toilette and perfume spray mist.

Fulbright Irked by Rumor Leak

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk met with key senators today in the midst of criticism of the United Nations action in the Congo which the United States officially supports.

Arrangements for Rusk to get together with members of the Foreign Relations Committee who are in Washington were an ill-kept secret, a circumstance which obviously annoyed Chairman J. William Fulbright D-Ark.

"It seems members find themselves incapable of preventing leads to the press of information about an informal meeting of the committee," Fulbright said.

While the Congo apparently would take high place on the agenda for the briefing, other members said they also expected to question Rusk about the Indian invasion of Goa and the Indonesian threat to take Western New Guinea by force.

Rusk said the meeting was mutually agreed on Tuesday, to provide a briefing of the senators on practically everything.

Two Democratic senators challenged Richard M. Nixon to offer an alternative to President Kennedy's "hard choice" of backing an ill-U.N. action in the secessionist Congo Province of Katanga.

Turkey Top Bargain for Christmas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Turkey and ham maintain their traditional Christmas headline role this week, although the former seems to have a big advantage in the eyes of bargain hunters.

Turkey prices are the lowest in 20 years, thanks to a whopping crop of 107 million gobblers, up 26 per cent over last year. In addition, government experts figure on Jan. 1 cold storage stocks of 300 million pounds of turkey, about twice as much as a year earlier.

Prices run 8 to 14 cents a pound less than a year ago in New York area supermarkets and groceries. For the larger birds, the gap is as much as 18 cents a pound below 1959 levels.

Pork supplies over-all are a bit higher than a year ago currently, but smoked and canned ham prices are up 4 cents a pound over year-ago levels in the New York area. Pork chops at 79 cents a pound are down 20 cents from 1960, up 10 cents from 1959.

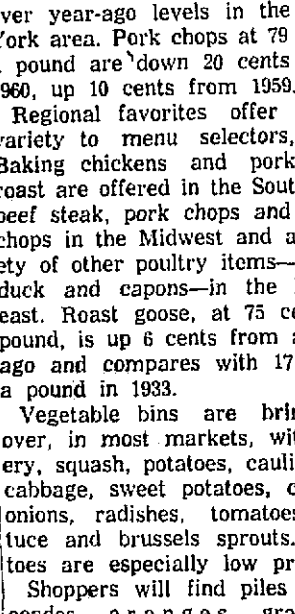

Regional favorites offer some variety to menu selectors, too. Baking chickens and pork loin roast are offered in the Southeast, the Midwest and a variety of other poultry items—geese, ducks and capons—in the Northeast. Roast goose, at 75 cents a pound, is up 6 cents from a year ago and compares with 17 cents a pound in 1933.

Vegetable bins are brimming over, in most markets, with celery, squash, potatoes, cauliflower, cabbage, sweet potatoes, carrots, onions, radishes, tomatoes, lettuce and brussels sprouts. Potatoes are especially low priced.

Shoppers will find piles of avocados, oranges, grapefruit, pears, apples, tangerines, bananas and grapes at bargain rates. Good buys in some sections include kumquats, limes, coconuts, cranberries, emperor grapes, tangelos and lemons.

Nuts are in abundant supply.

Holiday Cookies And Coffee Bring Warm Christmas Cheer

What would a Christmas be without gaily decorated cookies? As far back as we can remember, there was always the fragrance of cookies baking during the days before Christmas. The coffee pot stood close by so that each batch could be sampled with a sip of warming coffee.

These Christmas Gingerbread Cookies are heart-warming symbols of Christmas, past and present. No Yuletide should pass without platters of them. The decorating art is up to you, but these samples will give you ideas of what can be done.

The most beautiful cookies, of course, should decorate the Christmas tree—or be packed into gay holiday wrappings for special friends. But there should always be enough left for the family, to be savored along with fragrant cups of coffee throughout the holiday season.

Christmas Gingerbread Cookies

1 cup shortening
2 cup sugar
1 cup milk
1/2 cup molasses
1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons ginger
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon baking soda

Cream shortening and sugar. Stir in molasses and milk. Mix and sift flour, salt, spices and baking soda. Blend into molasses mixture and blend well. Chill one hour. Roll out 1/4 inch thick on lightly floured board. Cut with Christmas cutters. Bake in moderate oven 375° F. 12 to 15 minutes. Cool. Decorate with confectioner's sugar frosting, candy shot, etc. Makes 2 1/2 dozen.

India Cleans Up Fighting in Goa Strike

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Indian forces tidied up their hold on Portuguese Goa today behind an iron curtain. Newsmen were banned from the tiny enclaves seized in a 36-hour blitzkrieg.

The Defense Ministry announced that the remaining points of resistance in Goa had collapsed but kept dozens of reporters and photographers waiting outside of the biggest enclave at the Indian command post town of Belgaum. The smaller enclaves of Damao and Diu, north of Bombay, fell earlier before the lightning attack launched early Sunday.

Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, en route to the United Nations in New York, reportedly said prior to his departure that the military government had to organize and clear roads of mines and that it would be some days before journalists would be allowed to enter.

The news ban left the outside world dependent on official Indian reports of the capitulation of Portuguese rule in the city.

Menon told newsmen during a stopover in Cairo that he was returning to New York to place India's case clearly before the United Nations.

Diplomats at U.N. headquarters in New York were puzzled by Menon's haste. The General Assembly planned to recess today until mid-January, and the Soviet Union vetoed a Western ceasefire resolution in the Security Council Tuesday as India was completing its conquest. No further arraignment of India in the council or the assembly was expected.

The Communist bloc and the Asian-African nations acclaimed the action by Prime Minister Nehru's forces. The United States, Britain, and other Western nations strongly condemned it.

Menon said India had been forced to liberate the three enclaves because 14 years of negotiation with Portugal had proved futile.

Nehru told newsmen that the ease with which India took over the three enclaves and the lack of casualties—the government said it lost eight dead and that Portuguese casualties were "small"—proved the "correctness of the Indian assessment of the situation."

"The colonial administration had cracked up and the people wanted and welcome India," Nehru said. He said U.N. critics of India were "obviously ignorant of the facts now as well as in the last dozen years or more."

First reports did not indicate the cause of death.

The famed theatrical writer and his wife have had a home in this desert resort area for some time. Hart had suffered a heart attack last year while directing the break-in of "Camelot" in Toronto. The show was a reunion of the creators of "My Fair Lady" Hart as director and Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe as author and composer.

Hart's plays included "The Great Waltz," "Merrily We Roll Along," "As Thousands Cheer," "Jubilee," "Once in a Lifetime" and "Face the Music."

He produced or wrote many Broadway shows later bought for movies, including "You Can't Take It With You," "The Man Who Came to Dinner," "Lady in the Dark," and "Winged Victory."

His screenplays included "Gentlemen's Agreement," "Hans Christian Andersen," "A Star Is Born" and "Prince of Players."

Moss Hart of Stage Fame Dies

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Playwright Moss Hart died early today at his winter home here. He was 57.

Head of U. S. Steel Given a Divorce

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Benjamin Fairless, president of the American Iron & Steel Institute and former board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., was granted a divorce today.

Fairless, 71, had charged indignities in a suit filed last September against his wife, the former Hael Hatfield. Details of the suit were not made public due to a court ruling.

The divorce was handed down by Judge L. Alexander Seale of Westmoreland County Common Pleas Court.

Neither Fairless nor his wife appeared in court. The settlement was not disclosed. Mrs. Fairless did not contest the suit.

The couple was married Oct. 14, 1944, at Huntington, W.Va.

Life Around Sections of Arkansas

By JOHN R. STARR

Associated Press Staff Writer

A lot of modern space and science toys undoubtedly will be sold this Christmas, but the odds are good they'll be bought for (and by) poppas rather than by kids.

If Letters to Santa Claus are any indication, the kids are still more interested in cowboy suits, bicycles, air rifles and dolls than in modern electronic toys. Or may be the kids know Poppa will buy the gadgets and are looking to Santa for the old standbys.

Many newspapers around Arkansas runs "Letters to Santa" columns at this time of year. Reading them (while remembering that the writer is generally exercising a brand new skill) is sometimes thought-provoking.

Some youngsters start off with an apology. Other state fully that "I've been good this year." Some ask only for themselves. Others remember brothers, sisters, aunts, cousins—even Mom and Dad.

Some are inclined to boast a bit about the year's accomplishments. Ricky Hale of Pine Bluff started his letter, "I know my ABC's."

Herbert Hill of Helena wrote, "I am a little boy and have been very good this year." Herbert, no doubt a precocious lad, got in a plug for his girl friends, Joan, Martha and Pauline.

Others, fearful that Santa might know the truth, hedge a bit. Such a one is Robert Dean Griffin of Pine Bluff, who wrote, "Of course, I won't get all of this because I'm just a typical boy of seven and that isn't good."

Sue Reeves of Helena threw herself on Santa's mercy, saying, "I haven't been too good but please come to see me."

Randy King of Helena prefaced

her letter with "I don't want too much," listed some items and added, "and anything else you think I need."

About 10 per cent of the letters offer some kind of bribe to Santa, promising candy, cake, cookies, etc., will be left for him. Another 10 per cent express concern that Santa may not be able to find his way into a house without a chimney.

"I'll leave the front door unlocked for you," wrote Penny Warren of Pine Bluff. Another child, more cautious, said both front and back doors would be left open in case Santa had a preference.

Carol Ann Brannon of Newport wrote, "I would also like for you to bring my little brother something. He is so small I don't know what to tell you to bring him. Maybe a jack-in-the-box."

Betty Ingram of White Hall indicated she is growing up to be a typical teenager. She asked for two tight skirts.

And Murry Jackson Jr., 9, of Sherrill, gave the same sort of

Homemaker's Holiday Savings

Homemakers are great travelers, and wisely, many put travel projects and home decoration on the same planning board, since the home and vacation are both part of the family budget.

More and more skillful homemakers are realizing that Family Plan air fares and off-season travel mean savings which can be applied to home improvements. On this side of the ledger, part of a new furnishings or decoration budget can be applied to travel, since many purchases abroad mean important savings.

For example, hundreds of dollars can be saved through Air France's Family Plan fares. Thrifty Economy Class means more savings, while off-season travel affords lower hotel rates, and family occupancy brings even greater savings. Further, air credit plans make travel budgeting easy. If you prefer to pay cash, why not open a "Travel Club" account at your bank, and give your family a post-holiday travel present?

A world of bargains awaits homemakers at most Air France destinations. In Paris, there are antiques galore, customs free if they are over 100 years old. The Louvre Museum sells outstanding prints and decorative items at very low cost. Parisian department stores have attractively priced Limoges porcelain. Rome, Tokyo and Zurich produce distinctive fabrics. The Scandinavian countries have wide selections of modern furnishings at one-third of prices asked at home. England and Ireland are treasure-troves for silver, while Vienna boasts fine stemware and porcelain.

Hal Boyl Advances Idea Space Ship From Planet Mars Landed on Our Earth

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) One year ago space ship from Mars arrived here secretly.

It was manned by a single Martian, operative ZY125X, whose assignment was to find whether the earth was advanced enough for Mars to consider opening interplanetary relations.

Here is his first report, sent via mental radio, to his command post on Mars:

"Trip uneventful and according to plan. In the city. Found inhabitants unbelievably friendly and hospitable. Many were interested in my strange garb."

"One man, noting my helmet, asked: 'What are you advertising, Bud?' When I told him 'Nothing,' he replied, 'I am a department store manager, and our Santa Claus is sick. How would you like to take his place?'"

"I consented. It seems Santa Claus is a kind of god, and the earth people worship him most at Christmas. I have enjoyed playing this role of god. Little children come sit on my lap and tell me what they want, and I laugh out loud and answer, 'Okay. Ho! Ho! Ho!'"

"The earth people are quite cultured. Nobody works. All they do all day is eat and tell each other jokes and exchange presents in beautifully colored packages which they get at the department store merely by signing their name."

"I met a pretty salesgirl here named Josephine. When I confided to her I was from Mars, she said: 'I kinda thought you had a Midwest look—judging from your haircut. My mother and I had an extra room in our apartment. Why don't you move in with us?' I did. More later."

Operative ZY125X sent his second message to Mars on Christmas evening. It read:

"A wonderful day. I gave Josephine and her mother a couple of watches I had picked up in the store, and they gave me some neckties which look like rainbows."

"In the afternoon I wandered into one of the local temples—they are called bars. A friendly earth man said, 'Pal, have a couple on me.' I had two drinks of their ambrosia. It made me feel strange and big. I went home. Josephine said, 'Well, country boy, I do believe you're loaded.' She sat me on a sofa and pressed her lips to mine. 'That makes me feel all tingly,' I told her. She said, 'It could be love, country boy.'"

Immediately this message was sent to operative ZY125X by his Mars command post: "Satisfied your mission accomplished. Return at once."

And back flashed this reply: "Not me. I like it here."

On Jan. 2nd operative ZY125X sent his last message to Mars: "Earth has suddenly gone crazy. No one smiles. Everyone scowls. They hurry, hurry, hurry as if demented. They bump into each other rudely. The department store manager took away my Santa Claus suit, and told me, 'Beat it, kid.'"

"Josephine asked me for some rent money. I said, 'You mean that green paper and those jingly pieces of metal?' I gave them to one of the priests in a temple for some of that nice ambrosia. And Josephine said, 'Mama and I aren't supporting no bums in this house, country boy. Out you go!' and she threw me out into the street."

"I had nothing to wear but my space suit and helmet. A policeman stopped me and said, 'What are you—some kind of a nut or something? I've got a good mind to toss you into the cooler.' Some children jeered at me."

"This is a frightening place. As soon as it is dark, I will board my space ship and return to Mars."

When the chastened operative ZY125X reported in person his full tale of horror to his superiors on Mars, they held a council and gravely decided it might be better to let the earth people grow up for another thousand years or so before considering interplanetary relations.

'Phone Firm Loses PSC Decision

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Public Service Commission today turned down a request to assign territory around Metolton to the Berryville Telephone Co., for service.

"The PSC said Metolton and other nearby communities would be served by the Green Forest Telephone Co. The Green Forest company plan to supply dial service out of the community of Rudd. Metolton is now in the company's territory."

A transfer to the Berryville company was requested by 128 residents in and around Metolton, but some of these withdrew their names from a petition presented to the PSC.

The commission order said also that the Berryville Phone Co. was reluctant to commit itself to serving the new area.

hint when he asked for a pool table.

Football uniforms were another favorite item in boys' letter. Some specify the number they want, for others just an old suit will do.

Perhaps the youngsters have been startled by TV violence, but there seem to be fewer requests for pistols and other toy firearms this year. More probably it's because the kids already have held up the old man for these important objects.

At any rate, after four more days, the old man can sit back and wait for his Christmas mail which will come, despite sleet and storm, shortly after Jan. 1. It won't say, "Dear Santa," but "Please remit."
